EARLY LITERACY KITS TAKE AND MAKE

Kits included crafts and Library books for you and your children to read together. Our MARCH theme is WEATHER, we will also be making a St. Patrick's Day Craft and our Easter craft will be available the last week of March.

If you would like to have your little ones join us, please Call the library and we will add you to our list. This is a free program.

Community Easter Scavenger Hunt

This March have some fun going on an Easter Scavenger Hunt. If you would be interested in hanging a picture in your window, please call the library @ 306-473-2393. We would like to have all the pictures in place by March 5th so we can start the Easter Scavenger Hunt on March 8th.

- We will be getting members of the community and businesses to tape a picture to the inside of their window with the image facing out.
- We will have a checklist page for each child, please register your child with the library. This can be done by phone, email or on our FaceBook page.
- Walk around the neighbourhood and mark off the images as you find them. This is not only a lot of fun playing I Spy around our community, but is also a great chance to have fun with an Easter Game for the whole family and get some exercise too!
- Bring your checklist to the library when it is complete and receive an Easter Surprise!

The library is still in PHASE 3 of the re-opening plan.

This means:

- We are open by appointment only
- Our public access computer is not available at this time
- You can book an appointment to look for books
- You can order books online
- You can call the library and we can order for you.

Watch for posters and check us out on FaceBook and Instagram.
